7 pm POSITIVE PARENTING: MASTERING MOTIVATION,
ATTITUDE AND RESPONSIBILITY
Glenbard South / 23W200 Butterfield Rd / Glen Ellyn

Practical strategies to impart independence, problem solving, and self-control.

Do your children sometimes drive you crazy? Do you sometimes feel unsure about how to discipline your children? Would you like your children to be more motivated and cooperative? Do you want to feel better about yourself as a parent? If you answered yes to any of these questions, plan to join us for this evening with Sprick. Sprick is a parent, grandparent, director of Teaching Strategies, Inc. and lead consultant for Safe and Civil Schools in Eugene, Oregon. Sprick will discuss things parents can do to help their children learn to behave responsibly and respectfully. Attendees will learn:

- How to create clear expectations for positive behavior
- How to inspire children to be motivated
- How and when to use consequences for misbehavior
- How and when to use praise

RAISING THE SELFIE GENERATION

7 pm / Glenbard North / 990 N. Kuhn Road / Carol Stream

The opportunities and implications of growing up in today's digital world.

Critics of technology speak of a narcissistic, disconnected and disengaged generation lacking social abilities and addicted to the latest fads and gadgets. Yet, great numbers of young people are accessing and creating powerful learning networks to become passionate, self-determined learners. For parents, the main concern is how to help shape the digital footprint teens are leaving behind and how to help make that experience a safe one?
