

Josh Shipp

THE GROWNUPS GUIDE TO TEENAGE HUMANS

All adults welcome.

February 18, 2016 / 7 pm / Glenbard North / 990 Kuhn Rd / Carol Stream

All Glenbard students will hear Shipp speak during the day as part of Glenbard District 87's Live Life Well Week 2016.

Have you ever wished for the secrets to successful communication with your student or the tools to help your teen open up? Please join us when Josh Shipp – author, speaker and television personality – provides the strategies parents need to engage, support and motivate their children.

Shipp has earned an international reputation as a recognized teen expert. His inspiring personal story and life-changing message has reached parents, educators, mental health professionals and millions of teens. As the author of “The Teen’s Guide to World Domination” and “Jump Ship: Turn Your Passion into a Profession,” Shipp helps young people learn valuable life-skills. Shipp combines laugh-out-loud humor and real-world experience to reveal five mistakes parents unknowingly make and offer practical strategies to drive positive changes in teens. It’s a message from someone who’s been there and wants parents to feel empowered and teens to succeed.

Pre Meeting Presentation:

PARENTS, TEENS, AND THE LAW: TEEN SAFE DRIVING LAWS AND THEIR RELATED PENALTIES

February 18, 2016 / 6:30 pm / Glenbard North / 990 Kuhn Rd / Carol Stream
with Sergeant Brian Cooper - Carol Stream Police Department

These free programs are open to the public.

