

Conquering the Challenges of College Costs

Between student loans, financial aid, and tuition rates, the cost of college can be a major concern—and very confusing—for parents of high school students. Fortunately, you have free access to a valuable resource that helps you through the entire paying-for-college process.

Financial Fit[®], an online program from College Countdown, helps you:

- Figure out how much you can really afford to spend on college
- Find schools that match what you can afford
- Understand the financial aid process, including student and parent loan options
